Monument Circle Idea Competition: Deadline Entry Approaching

Award Winner Earns up to $5,000

Indianapolis: Monument Circle is the heart of our state and our city, a beloved and highly recognized public place and home to numerous corporate, cultural, and commercial entities. It's where we gather to celebrate, commemorate, and show our guests who and what we are. It's why Indianapolis is called the "Circle City." It's been an important part of our past, but what does it mean for our future?

We want to know what you think. We're looking for design, programming, retail and restaurant ideas- the more, the better. Please follow us on Twitter; find us on Facebook; and keep an eye out for our blog, where you'll be able to add ideas and comments of your own. Of course, you can also enter the competition yourself—and compete for the top prize of $5,000! Get all the details at www.MonumentCircleIdea.com. The Monument Circle Idea Competition will be accepting entries through April 15, 2011. We'll be awarding prizes of $5,000, $2,000, and $1,000—plus a special $1,000 People's Choice award. And, it all culminates in a public exhibition of your ideas on Monument Circle beginning June 17, 2011.
